Preparing from Nagaland can feel harder because coaching access is limited, internet can be unstable, and family responsibilities are real. But these are not permanent barriers; they are planning problems that can be solved with routine, revision discipline, and smart resource use.

You do not need a ₹20,000 coaching setup to clear objective papers. You need:

- a fixed daily schedule,
- repeated MCQ correction,
- and calm consistency for 90 days.

Your regional knowledge is a strength in NPSC. Use it. Build confidence from local-context mastery and combine it with national basics.

8) Weekly Review Sheet (Use Every Sunday)

- This week's study hours:
- MCQs attempted:
- Accuracy:
- Topics improved:
- Topics still weak:
- Plan for next week:

Keep this sheet simple and honest. Small weekly correction beats last-minute panic.
